The Switched Lunch

PLAYER EDITION

US-Letter • Edition 1.0.0 • Colour

Five everyday mix-ups. Open every observation, compare the details, then explain what happened. The first case is also our free sample.

Designed for 10+; 1-2. Time target: 5-10 per case; 25-50 total minutes.

Prototype edition: independent human playtests and physical print checks are pending.

Before you play

Materials: One shared browser; Optional paper for notes

1. Each case is independent. Choose any case from the contents.

2. All the information you need is in its four observations.
 3. Ask for up to three hints. Incorrect answers carry no penalty.
 4. Read the explanation after solving; reset to replay on this device.

Keep the host guide separate: it contains hints and solutions. Print at 100% scale on the labelled paper size. Do not select “fit” if measuring printed elements.

The Switched Lunch

Three friends took the wrong lunch bags.

Observation 1

Maya ordered a falafel wrap. Luca ordered tomato pasta. Noor ordered a garden salad. The café made exactly those three lunches.

Observation 2

Each lunch went into its own unlabelled bag. Each friend took one different bag; none were left and nobody swapped afterwards.

Observation 3

Maya opened her bag and found the tomato pasta.

Observation 4

All three checked: nobody had the lunch they ordered.

Who has Noor's garden salad?

Choose: Maya / Luca / Noor

Our answer: _____
