

Questions that get a room talking.

24 work-safe questions in 6 sets. Cut along the dashed lines; each page makes eight cards.

Ways to play

1. Deal one each. Everyone draws a card and answers it, or swaps it for the next one.
2. Pick one of three. Draw three cards and choose the one you'd like to answer.
3. One for the room. Read a single card to the meeting. A word or a sentence each is plenty.
4. Pairs. Give each pair three cards and five minutes, then share one surprise.
5. Team challenges. The violet cards are for the whole group to answer together.

The sets

- Quick starts One-line answers to get everyone talking
- Imagine if Hypotheticals with no wrong answers
- Work, lightly About work, never about performance
- Favourites Small preferences, easy to share
- Little stories Short, low-stakes stories. Anyone can pass
- Team challenges The whole group answers together

Anyone can pass. Nobody has to answer a question they'd rather skip.
